August 2020 Newsletter - Av/Elul 5780

From the Rabbi's Shtender

Dear Member,

It is hard to believe that we are already at the beginning of August, and that Yom Tov is almost upon us. Every year at this time we send you the schedule and information for Yom Tov. This year, however, we are in a more complicated situation as we attempt to piece together what we hope Yom Tov will look like in our shul, and in other shuls around the world. As soon as our Yom Tov minyanim and seating plans are finalized, we will let you know. Let us pray that we will all make the right decisions and that we will have a meaningful, safe and healthy Yom Tov season.

We will be sending out the 5781 (2020-2021) dues invoices shortly. We urge everyone to respond as promptly as possible since many of the shul's operating expenses are ongoing despite COVID-19.

I would like to remind our membership that each year our shul publishes a Torah journal, called Clilei Torah, in conjunction with the Yomim Tovim. This is in addition to our monthly Clilei HaChodesh. Both are Class A Divrei Torah works that are worth reading and keeping. I would like to encourage our membership to consider contributing your Divrei Torah, as you have in the past, to this very worthwhile endeavor. If you are interested, please contact Rabbi Moshe Berger or Sarah Rudolph as soon as possible.

Stay safe and healthy.

Sincerely,

Rabbi Naphtali Burnstein

The Power of Prayer

In the Selichos we say a prayer where we invoke the merits of our ancestors, and we also pray that we be helped for the sake of our future generations. Our rabbis tell us that Hashem acts towards us as we act towards other people. If we wish Hashem to judge us because of the merits of the past and the promise of the future, then we must take the past and future into account in our own actions.

While we should not allow the burden of the past nor the anxieties of the future to exert a destructive effect on our living, the constructive lesson of the past and a responsible attitude toward the future can guide us to a proper and responsible life.
