Super Story

Rabbi Nachum was once sent to Rome to try to persuade the Roman Emperor to be more kind to the Jews. He was carrying a precious box, filled with gold and diamonds, a gift for the Emperor. On the way he stopped at an inn, where he stayed for the night. On the following morning he continued his journey, not knowing that the innkeeper had stolen the precious things from the box and filled it with sand and soil! When Rabbi Nachum finally reached Rome and presented himself to the Emperor, he handed the box to the Emperor. On opening the box, it was found to contain nothing but sand and soil. The Emperor was filled with anger, thinking that the Jews wanted to mock him. Nachum was thrown into prison and certain death awaited him. However, Nachum was not dismayed and said, as usual, "Gam zu l'tovah" - "this is also for good." At his trial, Eliyahu HaNavi appeared as one of the Emperor's advisers, and said that the Jews would certainly not have dared to mock the Emperor. He suggested, therefore, that perhaps this was no ordinary sand and soil. He had heard that when Avraham went to battle against the four kings, he threw sand and soil at them, which G-d turned into arrows and deadly weapons and in this way Avraham won the battle against the mighty kings. Maybe this sand and soil were of the same kind! Now the Emperor had been at war for some time, but could not defeat his enemy. So he ordered this sand and soil to be used. Indeed, the miracle happened, and the enemy was defeated! Nachum was immediately freed from prison and given many gifts and the petition of the Jews was granted.
