July 2024 Newsletter-Sivan/Tammuz 5784

From the Rabbi's Shtender

Dear Member,

I hope your summer is going well. Although in the summer things often tend to slow down, our learning programs continue at full force. On Wednesday, June 26, our Daf Yomi class (along with others around the world) completed Maseches Bava Kama, and on Thursday began Maseches Bava Basra. Also, on Wednesday evening our nightly Mishna Brura finished the second volume of Mishna Brura, and on Sunday evening, June 30 we hope to begin the third volume, which is Hilchos Shabbos.

If anyone would like to join or has any questions about these two learning programs, or any others, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Rabbi Naphtali Burnstein

LAWS PERTAINING TO THE THREE WEEKS

During the summer months we observe the "Three Weeks," the season when we mourn many tragedies which befell the Jewish people. The 17th of Tammuz, which is observed this year on Tuesday, July 23, is a fast day, which commemorates several tragic events in Jewish history. These include the destruction of the first set of Tablets of the Ten Commandments, and the breaching of the walls of Jerusalem immediately prior to the destruction of the Second Temple. Men and women over the age of Bar and Bas Mitzvah are required to fast by refraining from eating, drinking or rinsing out one's mouth from daybreak until nightfall, at 9:33 pm. Although the fast does not technically begin until morning, 5:01 am, a person should have in mind before retiring for the night the possibility of awakening before daybreak to eat. We read the Torah twice that day, both times reading about the forgiveness Moshe achieved for the Jews after they had worshipped the golden calf. This is read twice on all fast days except for Yom Kippur and Tisha B'Av mornings when different portions of the Torah are read. The 17th of Tammuz begins the Three Weeks, a period of gradually increasing mourning culminating with Tisha B'Av, the 9th of Av. During these three weeks we refrain from haircuts, weddings, dancing and playing music. A musician whose livelihood is earned by playing music may perform for non-Jews during the Three Weeks, but not during the "Nine Days."

The Power of Prayer

"Many waters cannot extinguish the love [of Israel for Hashem], nor can rivers wash it away".
(Song of Songs 8:7)

Song of Songs, or Shir HaShirim, is a parable of the relationship between the Jewish people and Hashem. Neither the exile nor the repeated persecutions that we have endured throughout history can diminish the intensity of the Jewish people's love for Hashem. By the same token, while our deviation from the will of Hashem may diminish the demonstration of His love for us, the intensity of His love for us is not lessened.
